

THE BARBEES OF ONSLOW COUNTY

Revised 2022
Version 1

This document identifies the descendants of Isaiah Grayson Barbee (1830-1902), son of Isaiah Barbee and Catherine Brantley Barbee who lived in the New Hope River area of Chatham County, North Carolina. Isaiah Grayson Barbee and his wife, Martha Jane Burke Barbee moved from Chatham County to Onslow County in the fall of 1865. Isaiah Barbee was the son of Gray Barbee and Nancy Cain Barbee of Chatham County.

Note: For the tracing of blood lines by future generations, the names of adoptees and stepchildren have been indicated as such when possible. Also, note that given names, and family surnames used as given names, are passed down generations.

Other sources of information about the Barbees include:

- “The Heritage of Onslow County, North Carolina” compiled by the Onslow County Historical Society, Hunter Publishing Company, Winston Salem, NC
- “A Study of the Barbee Families of Chatham, Orange and Wake Counties in North Carolina” compiled by Ruth Herdon Shields, Belle Lewter West, and Kathryn Crossley Stone and
- “The Commonwealth of Onslow.” By Joseph Parsons Brown (husband of Almyra Barbee)

Any females of direct Barbee blood lineage are eligible to join the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution on the same genealogical line and records as that of Martha Barbee Hodnett, Frances Jarman Shingleton, and Susan Barbee Thomas.

ISIAH BARBEE (- 1830)*CATHERINE BRANTLEY (1796 – 1882)

Isaiah and Catherine Brantley Barbee had one child, Isaiah Grayson Barbee. Isaiah Barbee died without a will but in the N.C. ARCHIVES among the ESTATE records of Chatham County are several papers relating to his estate. The first is "February Term 1830 – Petition of CATHERINE BARBEE widow and relict of ISIAH BARBEE" ..... Catherine's petition was for division of perishable property for one year's provision. The dower was laid off by twelve men appointed by the court. On February 8, 1830 James Cain Barbee (brother to Isaiah) was appointed Administrator of Isaiah Barbee's estate and he filed an inventory on 1 March 1830. He gave bond for $3000. His surety was William M. Burns.

In August 1830 John Brantley was appointed Guardian of ISIAH GRAYSON BARBEE. Bond was $1000. Surety was William M. Burns.

At May 1832 term of Chatham Court – "Petition for Dower – Catherine Barbee, heir of Isaiah Barbee vs Isaiah Grayson Barbee ." Isaiah Barbee died in 1830, owned 200 acres on New Hope "joining Gray Barbee and others" .....ISIAH GRAYSON BARBEE is the only child of the said Isaiah and is now an infant of tender years and that John Brantley is his lawful Guardian..."

In a paper dated August 14, 1838 William M. Burns gave bond for $600 as Guardian for ISIAH GRAYSON BARBEE.

Catherine Brantley Barbee, widow of Isaiah Barbee, married Merritt Roberson. Her marriage contract, dated August 1837, arranged that at her death all her property would immediately become her son's.

In the 1850 census for Chatham County ISIAH GRAYSON BARBEE, aged 20, was living in the family of William Burns.
